

PRELUDE

Solo B $\flat$ Cornet

HENRY JOHNSON

Moderate tempo (with dignity)

A little faster (flowing)

The image shows a page from a musical score for 'The Swan' by Camille Saint-Saëns. It features three staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature. It contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with a dynamic marking of p (piano) and a crescendo marking cresc. leading to a fortissimo f section. The second staff continues the melody with similar rhythmic patterns and a fortissimo f marking. The third staff features a mezzo-forte mf marking, followed by a crescendo cresc., a fortissimo f marking, and a decrescendo dim. marking. The music is written in a style characteristic of late 19th-century French music, with elegant phrasing and dynamic contrasts.

Tempo I

Handwritten musical score for "The Swan" by Camille Saint-Saëns. The score consists of three staves of music, likely for a piano accompaniment. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The music is written in a flowing, lyrical style with many slurs and ties. Handwritten annotations include "mf" (mezzo-forte) on the first staff, "Decisive" on the second staff, and "broaden" on the third staff. There are also some handwritten notes in the bottom right corner that appear to say "slow down".
